Angel Food @MSP turns a small, unexciting space into a dynamic and edgy draw for a quick, delicious breakfast or snack.

With an open-kitchen design, passengers are immediately engaged by bustling pastry chefs cranking out fresh, scratch items, kneading donut dough, mixing the next small batch batter, and hollering at each other while they do it – all reminiscent of street-side bakery.

THE BEST STOP YOU WILL MAKE AT THE AIRPORT!!!
Every time I fly, I make sure to stop here for a stellar pastry, and I have yet to be disappointed. No, they often don't have awesome selections in the evenings, but the selection in the morning is the bomb!! My favorite so far was the banana chocolate chip scone. 10/10

Favorite bakery ever! They have delicious gluten free cake donuts and I'm addicted. I always fly out of the gates next to this bakery and as a treat to myself, every time I buy at least three of these donuts for my travels! Soooo good. The staff is always incredibly nice, fun, and pleasant to chat with (even before 7am flights! That takes a special kind of person! Haha!)

What a selection of sugary goodness.

The service was top notch

I just enjoyed a cruller that was so great I can't wait to dig into my blueberry filled cream donut on my plane ride home.

Seriously this is gonna be a MSP tradition for me to stop in. (Thank goodness Alaska gate is very close).
