In an effort driven by HMS Host, Loaves and Fishes, a Minneapolis-based nonprofit serving free, nutritious meals across seven Minnesota counties, has established a program that collects ready-to-eat food donations from restaurant operators at the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport.

In 2018, Loaves and Fishes served its 1,000,000th meal.

MSP Airport donates an average of 1500 pounds of food each week.

Food is collected throughout the airport and brought to the MSP Airport loading dock.

The food is fresh and ready to eat, but would typically go to waste.

Three times a week, a Loaves and Fishes staff member arrives at MSP's loading docks in a full-size cargo van to pick up the donation.

The rescued food is served by volunteers to those in need.
