BÁNH SHOP

Hear it from THE SOURCE

“Bánh Shop opened in Terminal D at DFW airport. I have to say this place is one of the best places to eat at the airport. The staff there is very friendly and fast with the orders if you are on the go like me. I had Classic Fried Rice the past few times and it is filling with lots of flavor. I got most of my co-workers hooked on this bowl and find that we are eating here once a week.”

– Franco816

“So happy that there is finally a reasonably priced restaurant in the T1 international departures level that doesn't just sell sandwiches.”

– Val L.

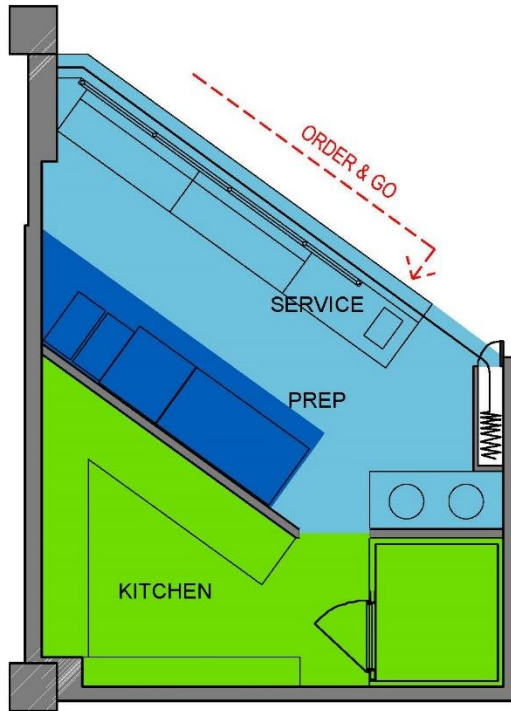

“I love this place. This is a great little Vietnamese place located in Terminal D. Lots of choices from salads, soups, noodle dishes, etc. everything has great flavor. If you are craving Asian food while at DFW, go check this place out. I am pretty sure you will be very pleased!”

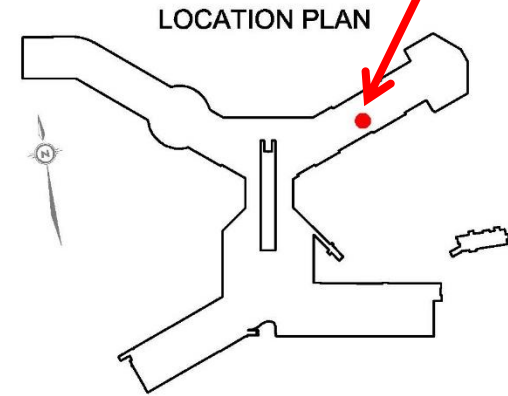

– Mike V.
