Terminal 1 – Lindbergh
Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport

Minneapolis  Saint Paul
INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

mssp

Minnesota's retail scene has a rich history. The state boasts the country's first indoor mall (Southdale Center) as well as the largest (Mall of America)—both located just down the road from the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport. There are thriving boutiques across the Twin Cities and, as a bonus, there's no sales tax on clothing.

Square Feet: 40,901

2018 Sales: $53,159,218

Average Sales/Square Foot: $1299.70

A curated variety of shops control and ensure a diverse selection of products available throughout the terminal.
