What you need to know about Canadian airports

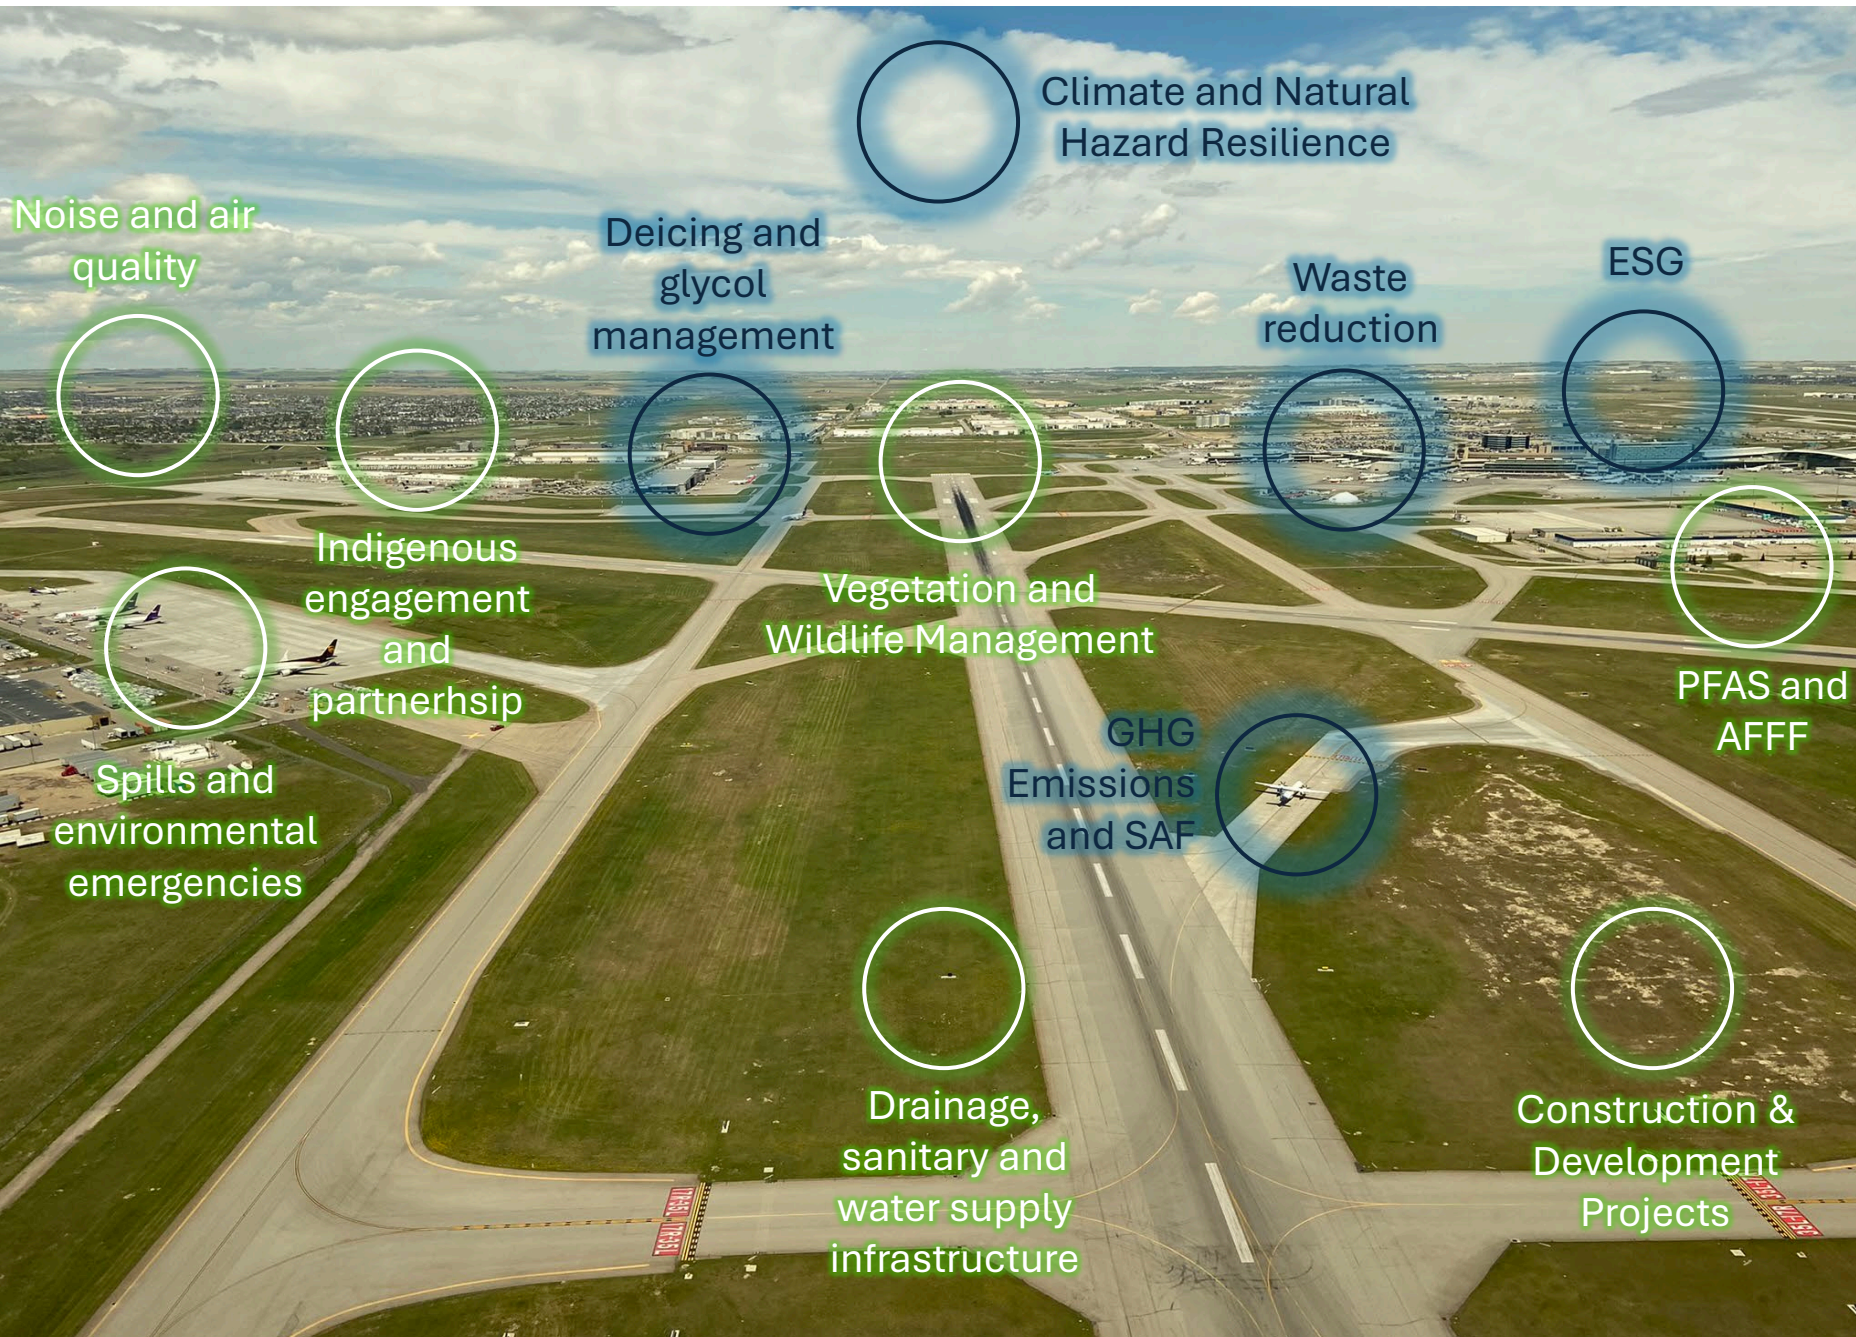

- 518 unique aerodromes in Canada.
- 26 of those are within the National Airport System, considered “hub” airports.
- Hundreds of additional regional airports, 33 of which are Canadian Airports Council members.
- Regulated by Transport Canada with some airports technically owned by the Federal government, but developed and operated by independent Airport Authorities.
- Air Navigation Services provided by Nav Canada, an independent organization.
